TWO ADDRESSES. ONE RARE OPPORTUNITY.

The Bridle Path is Toronto's most storied address, a private enclave of grand estates, mature tree canopies, and quiet, sweeping streets. For the first time in over two decades, this address opens its gates to two collections of residences: The Bridle Estate and The Bridle Prestige. Each is designed with the same conviction: that true luxury is measured not in scale, but in restraint.

BAYVIEW AVENUE, THE BRIDLE
ESTATE AND THE BRIDLE PRESTIGE
EMERGE AS A TIMELESS EXPRESSION.
BOUND BY A SHARED ARRIVAL, A HARMONIOUS ARCHITECTURAL LANGUAGE, AND AN UNWAVERING
DEVOTION TO CRAFTSMANSHIP.

The Bridle Estate and The Bridle Prestige are defined by quiet proportions and enduring materials, drawing from the timeless language of classical estates with a contemporary restraint. Clad in limestone and crowned by gently curved brass-toned metal roofs, each residence is distinguished by a series of graceful arches that frame the upper levels with rhythm and lightness.

ARCHITECTURE

THE BRIDLE PATH

THE BRIDLE ESTATE

Deep reveals, finely detailed stonework, and carefully proportioned windows create a façade where every element is measured and intentional. Thoughtfully scaled and composed, the two residences settle naturally within their tree-lined surroundings, offering a lasting sense of permanence and quiet elegance.

Bellman Service

Thoughtful service extends well beyond the lobby. From valet parking and chauffeur arrangements to bellman assistance, receiving deliveries and welcoming guests, every detail is handled with quiet precision. The concierge team provides discreet, intuitive support throughout the day, allowing residents to arrive, settle in and feel entirely at home.

A Communal Work Lounge, Media Lounge, Pet Spa, and Social Lounge with private dining anchor the amenity collection at The Bridle Path, complemented by an outdoor terrace with a two-sided fireplace, BBQ, and dining and lounge space. A Fitness Centre and Yoga Studio complete a collection built for daily life, not just special occasions.

RESIDENCE INTERIORS

Here, architecture becomes the art. Sculptural forms and beautifully resolved corners create a dining space that feels both intimate and expressive. Every line and curve, every material has been considered to celebrate the beauty of form, a setting designed for gathering, lingering, and entertaining.

THE BRIDLE PATH

An escape, entirely clad in marble. Veined surfaces create a sense of continuity and calm, enveloping the space in a quiet richness. A freestanding tub invites pause, while dual showers and generous twin sinks bring a sense of indulgence to the everyday.

SOME ADDRESSES ARE SIMPLY GIVEN. THIS ONE IS EARNED. THE BRIDLE PATH'S WIDE, TREE-LINED STREETS AND GENEROUS SETBACKS HAVE SHELTERED TORONTO'S MOST PRIVATE RESIDENCES FOR NEARLY A CENTURY, A QUIET COUNTERPOINT TO THE CITY IT BORDERS.

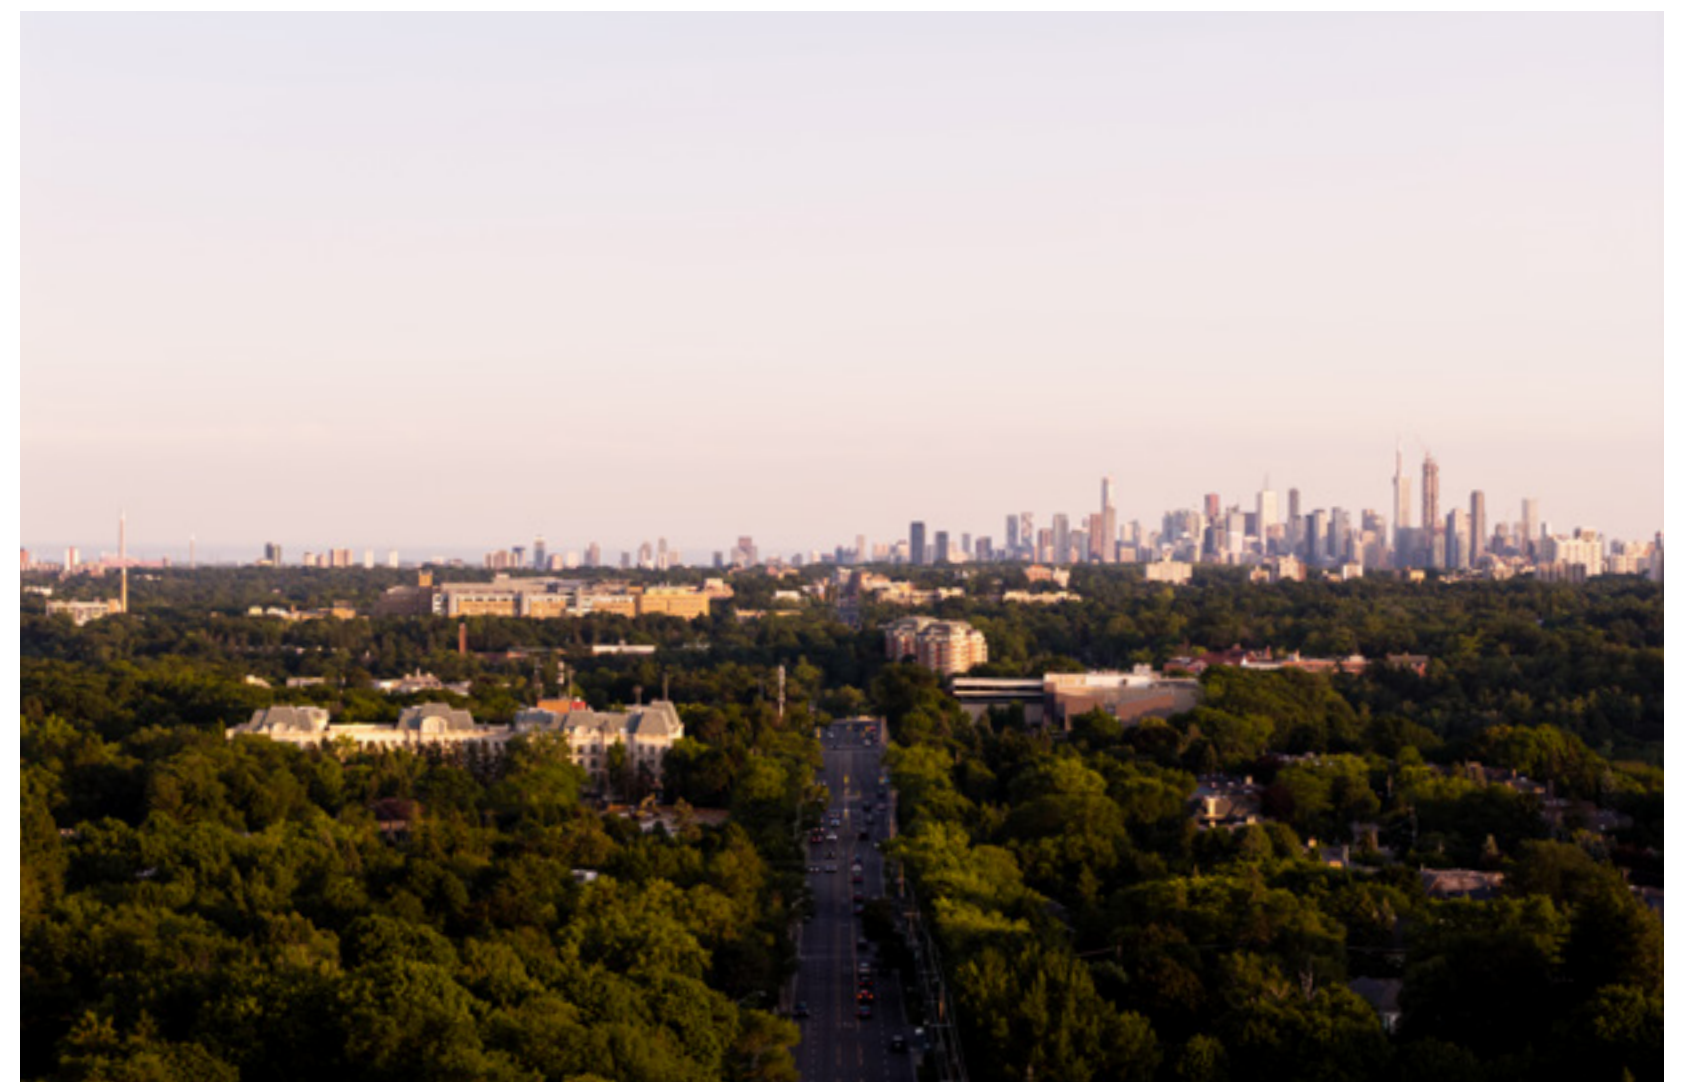

To live here is to belong to a lineage of privacy, prestige, and permanence.
The Bridle Path has long been home to Toronto's most discerning families, and now, with a limited collection of residences, it becomes home to yours.

BRIDLE PATH

Minutes from Bayview Avenue and Highway 401, with the Don Valley Parkway close at hand, The Bridle Path offers rare proximity to the city without sacrificing an inch of its seclusion.

Beyond the residences lies a neighbourhood defined by exceptional places to gather, play, and unwind. The Granite Club, Rosedale Golf Club, and the historic Bridle Path Equestrian Centre are woven into a landscape of quiet prestige, while Sunnybrook Park and Edwards Gardens offer expansive green spaces for walking, cycling, and reflection. Together, they shape a way of life where recreation, tradition, and nature exist in effortless balance.

Edwards Gardens, the Toronto Botanical Garden, Sunnybrook Park and Windfields Park create an extraordinary sequence of landscapes near The Bridle Path. At Edwards Gardens, formal perennial and rose beds descend into a valley of wildflowers, rhododendrons and dramatic rockeries, while the adjoining Toronto Botanical Garden presents 17 themed gardens devoted to native, pollinator-friendly and seasonal planting, alongside year-round horticultural learning.

Sunnybrook Park offers a more expansive expression of nature, with open parkland and pathways connecting into Toronto's larger ravine and trail system. Windfields Park feels quieter and more storied, unfolding across the historic Windfields Estate, home to the Canadian Film Centre, with the Wilket Creek Trail tracing its wooded southern edge. Together, these spaces place cultivated gardens, open landscapes, cultural heritage and protected ravine scenery within moments of home.

Families are drawn to The Bridle Path not only for its privacy and natural beauty, but for its proximity to a remarkable collection of independent schools. Crestwood balances academic achievement with individuality across its junior and senior programs. WillowWood is distinguished by small classes and a highly personalized approach shaped around each student's strengths and needs. Seneca Hill completes the offering with an IB-inspired curriculum that connects STEM, the arts and emotional intelligence to practical, real-world learning, arts, character and close mentorship.

Havergal College pairs a long tradition of girls' education with a 22-acre ravine campus and a future-focused approach to leadership. Bayview Glen offers a globally minded, co-educational journey from preschool through Grade 12, while Hawthorn, Toronto's only independent Catholic-inspired school for girls, brings together the pursuit of academic excellence and the development of character. Together, these schools place a rich range of educational philosophies and pathways within easy reach of home.

Life at The Bridle Path is complemented by a collection of neighbourhood destinations that invite unhurried moments throughout the day. Bayview Village, Shops at Don Mills, and the cafés, specialty grocers, and restaurants along Bayview Avenue bring together thoughtful shopping, seasonal ingredients, and memorable dining, all just moments from home.
